Subject Matter: Draft Designated Offices Bylaw
Department: Office of the City Clerk
Presented By: Shannon Rowan
GPC Meeting Date: March 20, 2023

Topic: Draft Designated Offices Bylaw.

Background: With the recent amendments to The Lloydminster Charter, updates are required to the designated officers for the purpose of clearly defining responsibilities and administration of The Lloydminster Charter.

This bylaw will repeal both Bylaw No. 66-2013 - Designated Offices Bylaw, as well as Bylaw No. 23-2017 - Commissioner Bylaw with the substantial amendments being as follows:

- the Commissioner's responsibilities and duties are defined in the Charter;
- the Clerk's responsibilities and duties are defined in the Charter;
- the Director, Assessments & Taxation would be a designated officer for the purpose of filling the role of Municipal Assessor and administering Parts 9, 10, 11, and 12 of the Municipal Government Act (Alberta);
- the Manager, Planning would be a designated officer for the purpose of administering Part 17 of the Municipal Government Act (Alberta) and Sections 500 and 503 of The Lloydminster Charter;
- the Senior Manager, Public Safety would be a designated officer for the purposes of administering Sections 500, 503, and 504 of The Lloydminster Charter;
- the Treasurer is no longer required to be listed as a designated officer and the responsibilities of the Chief Financial Officer will now be contained in the Financial Administration Bylaw.

Objective: To provide the Committee with a Draft Designated Offices Bylaw.
